Hunterdon Land Trust Hosts Stewardship Saturday Events

Help care for our public preserves by participating in Hunterdon Land Trust's first Stewardship Saturday event on Jan. 21 from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Muddy Run Preserve.

Hunterdon Land Trust is seeking volunteers to help with a variety of stewardship projects at its public preserves. Projects include caring for public hiking trails so they can be enjoyed by everyone, removing invasive species and monitoring wildlife.

No prior knowledge or experience is required – just enthusiasm to care for our natural lands.

At the Muddy Run Preserve, volunteers will be blazing a new trail in honor of Kingwood resident and preservation advocate Todd Kratzer. The preserve is located at 178 Kingwood Locktown Road in Kingwood.

RSVP to HLT's Stewardship Program Manager, Emily Dunn: (908) 237-4582, emily@hunterdonlandtrust.org.

Can't attend the first Stewardship Saturday, but interested in helping on another date?
